Bridal Fashion Week: 57 Grand

Posted by Carrie Goldberg

I was so excited to stop by 57 Grand's studio and visit designers Saukok and Carmen. They blend their uptown and downtown urban aesthetics to create simple, understated, and chic options for bridesmaids and now, brides!

For brides, I loved their work with tonal stripes and soft chiffon. And their new colors for bridesmaids dresses -- a range that goes from antique-gold to lime-sherbet -- were fresh and different. My favorite piece? The perfect ruffle-sleeved bridesmaid dress (and cocktail option) in emerald green. The designers suggested pairing it with a lush (faux) fur stole for the winter months (what a great bridesmaid gift!) -- a cropped one would highlight the feminine crystal buttons running down the bodice's back.
