St. Petersburg Photo Shoot by Tampa Wonderworks Films + Divine Light Photography

June 10th, 2011 by Emilia Jane | Filed Under | 8 comments

I'm sure if Joan Holloway had to be a bridesmaid she would be just as sassy as the smokin' wedding party in this Mad Men-inspired photo shoot by Tampa Wonderworks Films and Divine Light Photography. With the recent addition of 16mm into their repertoire, Tampa Wonderworks Films put together the perfect '60s affair fit for the same medium used to capture the wedding of Jacqueline Onassis and JFK. Admirers of the show will love all the clever details like candy cigarette favors and advertisement table numbers. Make sure you check out the amazing film from Tampa Wonderworks Films after you scroll through and click here to see the entire swinging shoot!
