Stylish bridesmaids' dresses from 57 Grand.

I've just fallen in love...with a brand-new line of bridesmaids' dresses. Based out of New York City (naturally!), 57 Grand's dresses are perfectly modern, chic and wearable. I've chosen a couple of my favourites to share with you today, and I'm particularly smitten with "Riverside." I would totally wear this dress to work with a great pair of boots and a cardigan. Speaking of which, one of my favourite features on 57 Grand's website is their "Rewear" section, where you will find suggestions for how these dresses can be worn again after the big day. Can you imagine? A bridesmaid's dress that will actually become a wardrobe staple. What a concept!
